3 The Departmental Examinations presented in the order referred to, have reference to the appointments and are applicable whether the vacancy is permanent or temporary.

4 As stated by the Chief Court, it is difficult to observe the rules rigidly in short-term leave vacancies.

The proposal of the Chief Court may perhaps be accepted with a slight modification viz when the vacancy is to last not more than, say, 4 months or some such period. Otherwise, there may be cases in which an acting man, without the necessary qualifications, may be continued for an indefinite period.

5) The proposal of the Chief Court without any modification suggested above, may be approved, for it is found in practice that the rule works as a hardship in cases of filling up temporary vacancies of short duration.

7) It appears desirable to prescribe a time limit, as otherwise, unqualified officials are likely to be continued in such vacancies for an indefinite period of time. It is also likely that ^{permanent} vacancies will be continued ~~as~~ temporary for providing for such ~~for~~ officials. It may be laid down that in temporary vacancies not exceeding one year, ~~such~~ officials, who do not possess the requisite qualifications may be appointed. One year is suggested so as to give an opportunity for these officials to appear for the examinations.

R. O. C. No. 32
Dis. 26-27

A. Sreenivasaragavachari, Esq., B.A., B.L.,
Registrar, Chief Court of Mysore.

B. N A G A P P A, Esq., Bar-at-Law,
Secretary to Government,
Local & Legislative Departments.

Sir,

I am directed to invite reference to rules 3 and 4 of the General rules of recruitment for the ministerial ranks of the Judicial Department appended to Government Order No.P.5666-7/Cts. 73-23-6 dated 5th May 1926, prescribing qualifications for the posts of Head Munshi of Munsiffs' Courts, Sheristedars of Subordinate and District Judges' Courts and Head Munshis of District Courts, and to state that it is not clear whether the rules in question are applicable to acting appointments in leave vacancies of more or less short duration.

I am to observe that in the case of such temporary appointments in short leave vacancies, it is neither necessary nor practicable to rigidly apply the rule in regard to the passing of prescribed tests, and the considerations which apply to permanent appointments will not apply to temporary arrangements made often so as to cause the least disturbance and as few transfers of officials in the Division as possible.

For these reasons, I am to request that Government may be pleased to restrict the rule regarding the passing of the prescribed tests or of obtaining exemption therefrom only to the case of incumbents permanently appointed to the posts referred to above and permit its relaxation generally in the case of officials appointed to leave vacancies not likely to eventually become permanent.

I have the honour to be,

S i r,

Your most obedient servant,

Heinrich Doppen
